

Wild Wing Man

So now you decided to leave these things behind
So now you divide it out of your life
You take a run for your first trial of flying
Something has begun and something is dying

Wild wing man fly
Wing man fly wild
Wild wing man fly
You tried, you rised high, higher

So now you believe
You feel, you hear, you see, you breathe
Circling around the whole from above
The answer you receive ist he nature of all things beneath
And all the unseen different realities

Wild wing man fly
Wing man fly wild
Wild wing man fly
You tried, you rised high, higher

Wind
Fire
Water
Earth
Now ist the time
From ashes you rise
A new beginning
this is your rebirth
